PRODUCT FEATURES

The Legion G9 Hybrid Multigym combines popular functional training with a traditional arm press and leg station, offering the best of both worlds. With six preset pulleys in three separate training zones (high, mid, and low), the hybrid home gym is fully adjustable. The G9 Hybrid comes equipped with a center-drilled 200 lbs steel weight stack, adjustable seat height and seat back, adjustable press and row bar, and leg extension and seated leg curl with adjustable foam leg rollers.

Looking to also do leg workouts? Add the optional Legion LC-GLP Leg Press as an option for this incredible gym. Now you can experience a commercial level leg press on the most premium home gym ever made by Legion!
